

Your decision to relax the original ownership rules is wrong and not enough notice was allowed for public discussion. Pulling the wool over the publics eyes is bad policy.